Chester County United Way Raises $130,000 at Annual Golf Classic to Drive Local Impact

[Exton, PA] Chester County United Way is proud to announce the success of its fourth annual Golf Classic event, which raised an impressive $130,000 to benefit its Community Impact and Innovation Fund. This vital fund supports innovative local programs focused on financial security, youth opportunity, and community health throughout Chester County. Brumbaugh Wealth Management, the presenting sponsor of the sold-out tournament, joined Chester County United Way in hosting the event at Penn Oaks Golf Club.

The day brought together a passionate group of golfers, sponsors, and community leaders for an afternoon of friendly competition, connection, and purpose. Guests enjoyed a full schedule of on-course contests, refreshment stations, luncheon, cocktail hour with hors d'oeuvres, dinner, and an awards ceremony. A special thank you to this year's generous sponsors, including platinum lead sponsors Penn Oaks Golf Club, CCRES, CTDI, Greater Philadelphia Business Coalition on Health, PECO, Truist, and Rayze; gold sponsors Di and Dallas Krapf, Hankin Group, Abel Brothers Towing, QVC, Lamb McErlane, and Bentley Systems; and silver sponsors State Farm – Will Anderson, First National Bank, Link Bank, Meridian Bank, NextGen Security, RKL, SL Commercial, and Umbreit Wileczek & Associates, PC.

“We are incredibly grateful to everyone who made this event a success—our sponsors, donors, players, and volunteers,” said Christina Wagoner, Senior Vice President of Financial Development at Chester County United Way. “Every dollar raised fuels innovative solutions to some of the most urgent challenges facing our community.”

Chester County United Way President and CEO Christopher Saello added, “The generosity shown through this event speaks volumes about the strength and compassion of Chester County. Together, we are creating meaningful change and laying the foundation for a healthier, more resilient community.”
